- If website, domain or email hosting is included in the Contract, the Buyer is deemed to have included for and must provide free of charge to the Supplier any necessary access username, password and code requirements.

11: INSOLVENCY OF BUYER

- This clause applies if:
 - the Buyer makes any voluntary arrangement with its creditors or becomes subject to an administration order or (being an individual or firm) become bankrupt or (being a company) goes into liquidation (otherwise than for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction), or
 - any encumbrancer takes possession, or a receiver is appointed of any of the property or assets of the Buyer, or
 - the Buyer ceases or threatens to cease, to carry on business or
 - the Supplier reasonably in his opinion considers that any of the events mentioned above is about to occur to the Buyer and has notified the Buyer in writing accordingly and the period of 2 Calendar days has expired since notification and no response to the satisfaction has been received by the Supplier from the Buyer to the contrary.

- If this clause applies then without prejudice to any other rights or remedy available to the Supplier, the Supplier shall be entitled to terminate their employment under the Contract or suspended any further Work under the Contract without any liability to the Buyer. If goods and/or services have been delivered and/or undertaken but not paid for then payment shall follow as set out at clause 4 (c) of these Conditions notwithstanding any previous agreement or arrangement to the contrary and the Supplier shall have the option of entering upon the premises of the Buyer or any third party where the goods are stored and repossess the goods.

12: INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- By supplying text, images and other data to the Seller for inclusion in the Buyer's artwork or other medium, the Buyer declares that it holds the appropriate copyright and/or trademark permissions. The ownership of such materials will remain with the Buyer, or rightful copyright or trademark owner.
- Any artwork, images, or text supplied and/or designed by the Seller on behalf of the Buyer, will remain the property of the Seller and/or its suppliers, excluding Logo design in which full copyright will be passed to the Buyer upon receipt of full payment.
- The Buyer may request in writing from the Seller, the necessary permission to use materials (for which the Seller holds the copyright) in forms other than it was originally supplied for, and the Seller may, at its discretion, grant this. Such permission must be obtained in writing before the Seller will allow any of the aforesaid artwork, images, text or other data to be used. The Seller reserves the right to charge fees for additional usage.
- By supplying images, text, or any other data to the Seller, the Buyer grants the Seller permission to use this material freely in the pursuit of the design and to utilise the designs in the Seller's portfolio unless agreed otherwise.
- Should the Seller, or the Buyer supply an image, text, audio clip or any other file for use in a website, multimedia presentation, print item, exhibition, advertisement or any other medium believing it to be copyright and royalty free, which subsequently emerges to have such copyright or royalty usage limitations, the Buyer will agree to allow the Seller to remove and/or replace the file.
- The client shall indemnify and hold the Seller free from harm against all and any damages, liability, demands, loss, expenses and costs (including without limitation legal fees) suffered or incurred by or awarded against the Seller in connection with or arising as a result of any action or claim that the Materials and/or their use infringe the Intellectual Property Rights of a third party or any applicable laws or regulations.
- If multiple design concepts are submitted, only one concept is deemed to be given by the Seller as fulfilling the contract. All other artwork designs remain the property of the Seller, unless agreed in writing.

13: GENERAL

- The Buyer shall be responsible for and shall indemnify the Supplier in respect of complying with any legislation or regulations governing the importation of the goods and/or services and into the country of destination and for payment of any duties thereon.
- If any provision of these Conditions is held by any competent authority to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part the validity of the other provisions of these conditions and the remainder of the provision in question shall not be affected thereby.
- No waiver by the Supplier of any breach of the Contract by the Buyer shall be considered as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision.
- If any dispute or difference arises under this Contract, either Party may refer it to adjudication in accordance with the Scheme for Construction Contracts (England and Wales) Regulations 1998 save that the Buyer shall be liable for both Parties costs and the fees and expenses of the Adjudicator in any adjudication. Moreover the Adjudicator is given jurisdiction to deal with the matter of the parties costs and the Adjudicator's fees and expenses but only in so far as set out above in terms of liability. The costs, fees and expenses of the adjudication which are to be the Buyer's liability are to be established in respect of the Supplier's cost by submission from the Supplier in the adjudication on an indemnity basis.
- Subject to clause 13 (b) any dispute or difference between the parties of any kind whatsoever arising out of or in connection with this Contract, whether before, during or after the completion or abandonment of the Works or after the termination of the Supplier's employment, shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996.
- None of these Conditions shall be deemed to reduce the Buyer's rights under appropriate legislation.
